

Corporate and CEO Programs

ABOUT CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Founded in 1953, CFR's Corporate and CEO Programs connects the world's leading companies with government officials, policy experts, and fellow business executives to exchange perspectives on the global forces shaping business and geopolitics.

CFR equips executives to navigate these critical issues through:

- Exclusive discussions with globally respected experts
- Programming tailored to the private sector, including CFR's annual Corporate Conference
- Briefings with CFR fellows
- Professional development opportunities for early career professionals and rising executives
- Access to Foreign Affairs magazine

CEOs of member companies participate in private forums designed for direct engagement with experts and policymakers.

CONTACT CFR'S CORPORATE AND CEO PROGRAMS

+1.212.434.9684

corporate@cfr.org

BENEFITS HIGHLIGHTS	BRONZE ($50K)	SILVER ($75K)	GOLD ($100K+)
Invitations to hundreds of general meetings held in New York, Washington, DC, and other major cities around the world and virtually	✓	✓	✓
CFR fellow briefing tailored to the company's interests	1	2	4
Exclusive high-level meeting opportunities for senior executives, including roundtables and salon dinners		✓	✓
Corporate Leadership Development Network, operating in conjunction with the competitive Stephen M. Kellen Term Member Program		✓ 4 Corporate Leaders	✓ 6 Corporate Leaders
Complimentary full-page advertisement in Foreign Affairs magazine		✓	✓ cover or premium position advertisement
Opportunity to invite select clients to join high-level events			✓
Complimentary rental of CFR's historic Harold Pratt House ballroom and library in New York or CFR's Washington, DC, event space			✓
Prominent logo placement on webpage and at the annual Corporate Conference			✓

Full benefit list is available upon request.

EXCLUSIVE CORPORATE EVENTS

